Sir:

Applicants renew their request for a refund of $450.00 to Deposit Account 12-1216 as this patent application qualified for small entity treatment and a request for refund was timely filed.

The referenced patent application, a national phase of an international application, was lodged at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on May 27, 2005. At that time, a charge to Deposit Account 12-1216 in the amount of the basic fee of $900 was authorized and made. However, within one month of the filing date of the patent application, it was learned that the patent application was entitled to small entity status. Therefore, on June 23, 2005, less than one month after the filing date of the patent application, a request for a refund of $450.00 was filed. A copy of that request for refund as well as the postcard receipt verifying the filing on June 23, 2005, follow.

According to the records for Deposit Account 12-1216, no refund was ever made late Declaration, along with the payment of the associated fee at the small entity rate, on September 22, 2005.

Since a timely Request for Refund was filed and since no refund has been given,
Applicants renew their request for the refund of $450.00 to Deposit Account 12-1216.
